THE GRAND KNIGHT

Dear Brother Knights,

With Lent in full swing, the Officers of Council 8599 send their wishes for a holy season and a joyous Easter for all of our Council families. Christ gave his life for our salvation and we all appreciate and pay homage to our Lord for this.

It has been a busy and productive March with very successful Lenten Friday Fish Fries in the Parish hall. We do this in conjunction with several other St. Irenaeus Ministries and the cooperative manner in which these have been done shows great unity among our parishioners. Many Knights have put in considerable time and effort to make these events come off smoothly, it is appropriate to thank everyone who has participated and encourage them to help during the remaining Fridays in April. The preparation, cooking, serving and cleanup are handled by our Council and the tasks are not easy.

It would take a page to list the Council members who have gone more than the requisite mile for the Fish Fries, but please know your efforts and results have been appreciated. THANK YOU!

Several Brother Knights need to be thanked for helping with the Presentation Sister's fundraiser on the 15th. Coordinators of Adoration by the Council, food delivering, bagging and distribution, and the Funeral Alter servers also deserve a pat on the back for providing continued assistance for the Parish needs.

We wish good health to all Council families and we pray for those suffering in any way.

God Bless you all

kp

What Went Wrong

When Jesus was entering the city of Jerusalem the people greeted Him just outside the city by laying branches on the road and crying (Matthew 21: 9) “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

What happened that week to change so much that the people who had been so glad to see Him and were shouting “Hosanna in the highest,” now cried “Crucify Him, crucify Him?”

They expected a King that would make all their earthy woes go away. Instead He told them that prostitutes and tax collectors could enter the kingdom of heaven before them. (Matthew 21: 25-31) “Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots will enter the kingdom before you.” He told them to pay their taxes (Matthew 22:17-21) “Tell us therefore what do you think? Is it lawful to have to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Jesus perceived their wickedness and said “Why do you test Me, render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are Gods” (Matthew 23:13-31) He pronounced a list of woes against the scribes and Pharisees and called them hypocrites. “Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.”(Matthew 23:12) He ran the money changers out of the church saying “It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves.”

This was Jesus, God in the flesh. His task was to proclaim the truth and provide salvation he spoke truth and love and it cost Him His life.....but

He has risen, He has risen indeed and because of His sacrifice we have eternal life and will be with Him in paradise.

DEPUTY GRAND KNIGHT & PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Brother Knights,

It's been great seeing the brother knights coming together at the Fish Fry's on Fridays. But it isn't over yet. We still have the 4th and the 11th of April for the last of the Fish Fry's. I'd like to see another great turnout. The business meeting is on the 9th, be sure and be there to get into the discussion of the recruitment drive that will be held on the 26 and 27th of this month. And let's not forget the Annual Golf Tournament is the last Monday of the month, the 28th. This is a great day for us, and Mike can use the help. And rounding out the month, is Adoration on the 14th. So you see we have a busy month ahead of us. We will need all the brother Knights to come together and do what we do best, giving help to all in our parish.

God Bless

THEME #5

Christians have a special place in their hearts for the poor and vulnerable because Jesus had a special place in his heart for them. The Gospels are filled with stories of how he helped those in need. Some of the most famous - the Beatitudes, the Last Judgment and the Good Samaritan - summarize the importance of Christian service to the marginalized of society.

One of the most important documents to emerge from the Second Vatican Council illustrates the strength of a Christian's commitment to the marginalized. The opening line of Gaudium et Spes (The Church in the Modern World) illustrates the point. To be Christian, it says, is to be one with the poor:

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

Dues payments are still coming in slowly. There are many who still haven't returned your payments, though. Second notice letters have been mailed. You will no longer be able to attend the monthly business meetings until your 2014 dues have been paid. Please get your dues in to me quickly. Knight Alter letters will be mailed in mid-April, and the retention committee will begin contacting you. If, for any reason, you are unable to pay your dues, please contact me and we can talk about options.

This month we have our Annual Charity Golf Tournament. This year we have renamed it. The Michael Doss Memorial Golf Tournament will be held in honor of our insurance agent who passed away in January of this year. This is our largest fundraising event of the year. There are many ways to help out before/during/after this event. Please contact our Golf Tournament chairman, Michael Mercer, lend a hand.

I just want to remind everyone that we have several events planned for this year and we need all of you to help out when you can.

I hope to see all of you at the monthly business meetings.

What Is The Right To Life?

Sometimes people are unclear on what it is this debate is all about. Some folks consider the "right to life" as a sentiment, moral or otherwise. Others see it as a strong religious conviction.

But that's not quite right.

As a sentiment it is certainly noble. And as a religious conviction it most certainly complements one's faith, as it shows that that faith is not merely concerned with ethereal and theological tenets, but is applicable to the human condition.

But "the right to life" is a principle of neither sentiment nor religion.

It is literally a statement of public policy. It is a legal phrase. It is taken from a legal document, the document that established the American nation.

The "Right to Life," from which our movement draws its name, is a public policy assertion that the new republic asserted as legitimizing its creation. It is a statement of the true and legitimate role of government. According to those assembled in 1776, it is one of the narrowly delineated functions of a legitimate government to protect the governed innocent. It was asserted as an essential role of a just and limited government.

The "right to life" then, is first and foremost a legal term. It is only 'incidentally' sentimental or religious; not about my faith.

Prohibiting theft is a legal issue, and your faith hopefully affirms society's laws against theft. But that does not mean that society's theft laws are based on your faith. Society does so because of the objectively demonstrable mayhem that would ensue without such laws. While it is a compliment to your faith that it affirms this principle, theft laws are not based on the assertion of your religion.

By dictionary definition, an abortion can only take place when it ends a life. In every abortion a unique human being is destroyed. Genetically unique, the heart is beating often before the mother knows she is even pregnant. Objectively speaking, a human abortion REQUIRES the taking of a human life, just as a canine abortion necessitates the killing of puppies before they are born.

In the cases of infanticide and euthanasia the dictionary definitions themselves are what are asserting that a human life is being taken. These are objective statements of fact in and of themselves.

The legal "right to Life" is therefore much easier to defend than many think. Often some may confuse the debate and bring themselves greater challenges by insisting the contention is about their faith or religious tenets. Again, it is certainly a complement to one's religion that they show care for other human beings, but that does not make the issue about their religion, and we would be well advised to not let it become so.

As a movement and as a nation, we come from a diversity of faiths. What unites us in our movement and as Americans is our commitment to certain unalienable rights, and the paramount among these is the right to live.

"The Right to Life" is about public policy. This entire debate was made about public policy when a Supreme Court made an imperious decision to sweepingly change the public policy of all the individual States in 1973.

If those who disagree with you say, "Well that's just because of your religion," or, "That's your opinion," make sure you point out the objective facts regarding taking human life.

Those facts are on your side, and facts are terrible things to waste.

Sincerely Yours
Thomas Nagle

"The joys and the hopes, the griefs and the anxieties of the [people] of this age, especially those who are poor or in any way afflicted, these too are the joys and hopes, the griefs and anxieties of the followers of Christ." The popular term "preferential option for the poor" is relatively new. Its first use in a Church document is in 1968 from a meeting of the Conference of Latin American Bishops held in Medellin, Columbia.

The Economy Exist to Serve People

A severe recession struck the United States in the early 1980s, and the Bishops of the US issued a statement in 1986 highlighting the Church's teaching on economic life. Economic Justice for All discussed how we as Christians and our elected governments are called to make economic decisions in an increasingly globalized free market economy.

Poverty in California

California is the Golden State but its very prosperity magnifies the difference between rich and poor that has developed in this nation and the world. The American Human Development Project has identified the best and worse Congressional districts in the United States based on health, education and income. Both ends of the spectrum are within 100 miles of each other in our state.

Love of Neighbor in Practice

In Deus Caritas Est (God is Love) Pope Benedict XVI used the occasion of his first encyclical to emphasize the importance of love, charity and justice to our faith. He explained that charity is just as central to the church as are the sacraments and scripture.

"Love of neighbor, grounded in the love of God, is first and foremost a responsibility for each individual member of the faithful, but it is also a responsibility for the entire ecclesial community at every level," he says.

In the United States, Catholic Charities or Catholic Social Service agencies are working in almost every diocese in the nation. And the Catholic Campaign for Human Development supports the grassroots efforts of the marginalized working to address their issues together. Added to this are the thousands of hospitals, senior services, poverty programs, awareness campaigns and more operated by religious orders and lay groups. "From salvation history we learn that power is responsibility: it is service, not privilege. Its exercise is morally justifiable when it is used for the good of all, when it is sensitive to the needs of the poor and defenseless," he said. (St. Louis, Missouri, January 1999)

MEMBERSHIP DIRECTOR

Dear Brothers,

Hope you have been attending your councils Fish Fry's on Fridays during lent. We have been busy with fish, the french fry's the cole slaw and the timings that are needed for the dinner and hope to see you there for the remainder of lent.

Our Council added a new member on March 17th at Fr. Kass Council and he took his 1st Degree. Please welcome Fredrick Gumm to our council and congratulations to you Fredrick. There are many of you who need to take your 2nd and 3rd Degree and you should think about taking them. You just need to let me know so I can give you the dates and even take you if you have a problem getting to the location.

So far no one has asked me about the other three core principles our order has put forward for us to do our good works. I hope I had you guessing. If you remember from your Degrees you would have figured them out. The second principle core is Unity. None of us is as good as all of us. Members of the Knights of Columbus all know that -- together-- we can accomplish far more than any of us could individually. So we stick together.... we support one another. That doesn't mean that we always agree or that there is never a difference of opinion. It does mean that - as a Knights of Columbus - you can count on the support and encouragement of your brother Knights as you work to make life better in your parish and community. Your idea or your other brother's idea maybe the best, so it is always good to give or express your idea.

The third principle core is Fraternity - The Venerable Michael J. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus, in large part to provide assistance to the widows and children left behind when family breadwinner died – often prematurely. The Order's top-rated insurance program continues to do this today, as do individual Knights. Last year the Knight's gave more than 10 million hours of their time to assist sick and/or disabled members and their families. In the Knights of Columbus, we watch out for and take care of one another.

The fourth principle core Patriotism - Members of the Knights of Columbus, be they Americans, Canadians, Mexicans, Cubans, Filipinos, Poles, or Dominicans, are patriotic citizens. We are proud of our devotion to God and country, and believe in standing up for both. Whether it's in public or private, the Knights remind the world that Catholics support their nations and are amongst the greatest citizens. We are in Solidarity with our Bishops and Priest.

Next 1st Degree is on Monday April 21st at Fr. Kass Council Hall, candidates check-in at 7:00 PM. Have you recruited any potential member lately?
