THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

"it was the best of times and it was the worst of times" - Charles Dickens This month as we come to the holy season of Advent and the birth of Our Lord, we can reflect and feel that we have been put through many hardships this year just like the Holy Family experienced before Jesus was born. We also realize that we must endure the good times with the bad. Even though we have been put through a lot, our brother Knights has risen to the occasion to serve St. Irenaeus in this time of need.

I'd like to thank all the Knights who regularly step up to help set up the mass on the weekend evenings and also now for daily Mass. Every time Father Binh has asked for help, you have been quick to respond. I'd also like to thank the Knights who regularly help out at HOPE food distributions (which seem to get bigger every time), and for the Knights who spent their extra time to help support the Knights of Columbus ministry table on Nov 14 & 15 and help set up and administer the drive through COVID testing station at the church parking lot on Nov 15th. They were able to test 158 people and only 3 tested positive. That is really leaving no neighbor behind. Finally, I'd like to thank those who are attending our virtual rosary and praying weekly for the needs of others.

I'd also like to give a warm St Irenaeus welcome to our new brother Knights in the council: Daniel Garcia, David Golini, and Mike Masotto. Welcome Aboard!

This year we will not be having a Christmas party, so we hope that all of you can stay safe with small family gatherings. Remember, your first responsibility is to your family. However that does not mean we need to hibernate in December. We still will have volunteer opportunities like HOPE, setting up for Mass, and other events, such as Consecration to the Holy Family, Into the Breach and Coats for Kids, which is a new drive we will do to replace Deacon Jerry's Warm Clothing Drive. If you have other volunteer opportunities that we can do as a Council please forward them to me and our Program Director Brian Cota.

May God richly bless you and your family during this holy Advent and Christmas season.

Vivat Jesus,
Rick Tkach

The Blessing Tree

I read a story once written by a Joanne Yoder. She wrote about a young couple that had lost their business and was going to be moving out of their home at the beginning of the year. They had very little money left but didn't want anything to get in the way of a Blessed Christmas. They decided to have a "blessing tree." They strung a few lights on their tiny little tree and then wrote all the blessings they have experienced in their lives, on little pieces of paper. They then rolled the paper and tied them with ribbon on the branches of their tree. When friends came by they didn't talk about their problems. Instead they shared the many blessings God had given them over the years. They would then offer their guests a little piece of paper and a ribbon and the opportunity to add a blessing to their tree.

This year many families are finding themselves in similar situations. Some have lost their businesses or are just barely hanging on. Some are losing their homes and many have lost loved ones. It's easy to lose sight of the things the Lord has blessed us with when hard times roll in. But if we keep our eyes on Jesus, He will see us through. Isaiah 41:10 so do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:31 for those who hope in the Lord. He will renew their strength. They will soar on the wings of eagles, they will run and not grow weary, and they will walk and not be faint.

Don't lose sight of the blessings. Stay focused on Jesus. After all He is the reason for the Season. Maybe you can have your own blessing tree. When your friends come over offer them a little piece of paper and a ribbon so that they can be a "blessing" on your tree.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

The name drawn at our November Member Meeting for the Good of the Order Drawing was Erik Beaver. Erik has been a member of our Council since April 22, 2009. His proposer was Lloyd Duronslet. Unfortunately, Erik wasn't present to win the $50.00. Next month the pot will increase to $60.00.

A copy of the Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity form will be sent out next week via email from Knights of Columbus. The documentation provided from these surveys is important for Supreme Council to maintain 501(c) (3) Charitable Organization status. Please complete this form and return it with your 2021 dues by January 15th.

This month I will be sending out the membership dues notices for 2021. Please pay by December 31, 2020 to be entered into a drawing to be held at the January Member Meeting, with winner having his dues refunded. Last year's winner was Bob Marsh.

If you are having difficulty paying your dues, please contact me or Rick Tkach GK, as our Council now has an account funded by member donations to provide dues assistance to help all our Council members remain in good standing.

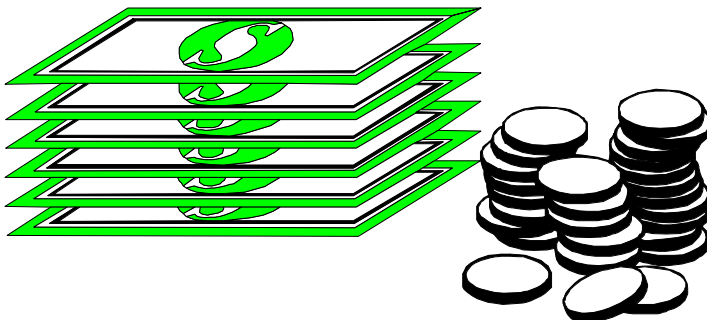

Unfortunately, health restrictions will prevent us having our Christmas Party this year. I hope to see you all at our December Member Meeting on the 16th on Zoom.

A special "Happy Birthday" to brother George Kubeck, who will put 90 candles on his cake on the 18th.

Vivat Jesus!

A VISIT FROM FATHER JOE

On Friday, October 30, 2020 at 10 AM, I was leaving St. Irenaeus Church after mass and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. It was a day before the Catholic Church was declaring Father Michael Joseph McGivney Blessed, the step before sainthood. It was a beautiful, cool day in Cypress, CA. A man I didn't know, who was wearing a black leather jacket and jeans, stopped me and asked, "Are you in the Knights of Columbus?" I said, "Yes," but I was puzzled. "How did you know?" I asked. He told me that he felt it in his heart. It was getting to be a strange exchange.

As we left church together, I noticed he had a silver rosary in his hand. Due to the Corona Virus, we both wore masks. He identified himself as Jovito Galaura and said he was a legal immigrant from the Philippines and had a work permit. He seemed eager to tell me something; so I listened. Jovito explained that a little over three months ago he contracted a severe case of Corona Virus and had to be hospitalized at the Adventist Hospital in Glendale, CA.

I asked him why he was in Cypress, CA at St. Irenaeus. He told me that he was living with his sister in Buena Park, and they were making a visit at the church. I was worried once he admitted having the deadly Corona Virus. Jovito went on to say that he had been in the Knights of Columbus in the Philippines, but he stopped practicing his faith at some point. He knew that Father McGivney had founded the Knights in October 1881 to protect immigrants by a fraternal society that insured its members. At that time there was an extreme prejudice in the USA against Catholics. Immigrant fathers were dying young and leaving their families destitute. Father McGivney, pastor of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, died at age 38 from pneumonia. He literally worked himself to death caring for his parishioners.

Jovito went on to tell me that his case of Corona Virus grew worse, to the point that he developed pneumonia. He was near death and began having dreams and delusions. With that information, I was really worried. Jovito said next that he didn't know if what happened in the hospital was a dream or reality. He distinctly saw a man dressed in white who entered his room and came to his bedside. The man identified himself as Father Joe. Father Joe heard Jovito's confession and gave him Holy Communion. After that, Jovito gradually recovered to the point where he could talk.

When he asked the hospital staff about who had come to see him, especially a Catholic priest named Father Joe, they flatly told him that Adventist hospitals never allow Catholic priests or outside clergy to visit patients. Jovito was astonished! After seventeen days in the hospital, he was released.

When he had recovered enough, Jovito travelled to New Haven, Connecticut to St. Mary's Church. He showed me a photograph of himself, wearing a mask. He was clearly placing his hand on Father McGivney's black marble tomb, which rests inside the church. While in Connecticut, Jovito learned that Father McGivney was known as Father Joe when he went to visit parishioners on sick calls. Joseph was his middle name.

I had shivers listening to Jovito's story. As a federal asylum officer for ten years, I had interviewed applicants seeking political asylum from all over the world. I was trained to weed out true stories from false ones. Jovito spoke to me fluently in English and seemed sincere and credible.

My mind was racing with what to do next. I asked him if he would like to meet Father Aaron, our assistant pastor, who is from the Philippines, and he said, "Yes." I led Jovito through the church next door to the rectory. Father Aaron wasn't in, but Jovito left him a message with his name and number. Jovito seemed eager to tell Father Aaron his story, and he knew that if indeed he had been healed miraculously through Father Joe's intercession, the Catholic Church would have to investigate it thoroughly.

After leaving Jovito in the church to re-join his sister, I headed home and telephoned a nurse hotline from my insurance. Nurse Bobbie assured me after I gave her all the facts about my close encounter with a former Corona Virus sufferer that I was okay and didn't need a test for the virus. I was very relieved but had a lot of burning questions. Was it a miracle? Did Father Joe visit him and give him sacraments to return to his faith? Why did he stop me, a total stranger to him? Jovito claimed to have fully recovered from Corona Virus and said that he stopped testing positive for it. He did not ask me for anything except to hear his story. I believed his story and found it a strange coincidence that he told it to me the day before Father McGivney was declared Blessed. Thanks, Jovito, for your story, and thank you, Father McGivney, for founding the Knights, which now has two million members and has spread all over the world!

May God bless you all,

Frank J. Faecke
