THE GRAND KNIGHT

Bother Knights,

February is upon us and we are reminded winter is still here. I hope most of you have had a good start on the New Year. We have to thank God and our families for all we have received in the past year.

It is with great sorrow that I inform you that we lost another GRAND Knight, Tony Cepeda, recently and we have several Council Knights with health problems in their families. Please keep all of them in your prayers and extend any helping hand you can to them. That is part of our commitment as Knights of Columbus. It was very gratifying to see so many Council Knights attending and participating in the funeral for Tony. He will be missed and remembered always.

We thank those able to attend the January meeting and encourage more Council participation where you can.

COUNCIL CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

An Amazing Love

In the Arctic there are sea birds called Guillemots. They live on coastal rocky cliffs, where there are thousands of them. They come together to make their nests in a very small area. They are so crowded that they have to lay their eggs side by side in a long row. Its amazing how the mother bird can identify her eggs among the thousands that are there. Studies show that even if you move her egg a distance away she will find it and carry it back to its original location.

II Timothy 2-19 The Lord knows those who are His. Our heavenly Father is intimately aware of each of His children. He is aware of every thought, emotion or decision that we make. He gives us His complete attention from morning until night and He is involved in all of our daily affairs.

Psalm 139:1-4 Lord You have searched me and know me. You know my sitting down and my rising up. You understand my thoughts afar off. You comprehend my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. There is not a word on my tongue that You do not know. Psalm 139:13-16 For You have formed my inward parts; You have covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You. When I was made in secret, and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written. The days fashioned for me, When as yet there were none of them.

Jesus told his disciples that the Father knows when a single sparrow falls from the sky and that we are even more precious than the sparrow to Him. Matthew 10:29-31 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from the will of your Father. And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are worth more to Him than many sparrows.

Yes Gods children can be assured of His constant care and His amazing love because the Lord knows those who are His.

Happy Valentines Day

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR.....

DEPUTY GRAND KNIGHT & PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Dear Brother Knight's

The month of January went quick, with some great football games and parties. February starts with the supper bowl, a good way to start any month. On the 4th of February we have Clergy Night Dinner at the Marywood Retreat Center, I will be there to enjoy the evening and company. We will also be using the call-out list to get volunteer's for the Pancake Breakfast we hold for the school teacher's and student's each year on Fat Tuesday. The kids always enjoy this event and it's fun to work. For the new members this would be a good place to meet some of your brother Knight's. To celebrate Saint Valentine's Day we are taking our ladies out to a dinner and show to see a Frank Sinatra impersonator. It is my understanding he is really good and the food is great. It should be a fun time for all.

On the thirteenth of every month we have Adoration, it would be a good time to thank God for all His blessing. During Adoration you have time to think about all the things He has blessed you with and some time to pray for friends, family, county etc.

On February 6th at 6:00pm the Golf Tournament Committee will be meeting in the conference room next to the church hall. Directly after the Golf Committee meeting at 7:00pm we will be holding the monthly Officer meeting at the same location. The Business meeting will be in the Ed Building at 7:30pm on the 13th of February and we would like to see you there. We have a lot of activates coming up and we need your help and support.

It is also my understanding H.O.P.E. could use some help. During the week Pro-life is going to the abortion site in Long Beach to pray the Rosary for life. If you would like to join us we meet at 10:30am in the church parking lot on Tuesday's and Thursday's (Tom Nagle-----one hour at site). On Wednesday's and Friday's we meet at 8:30am in the church parking lot (George Kubeck).

FROM THE DESK OF THE

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

The drawing for early dues payments at the January meeting went to Eugene Reising. Congratulations Eugene. Thank you to those who have paid their dues on time. If, by the end of January, you haven't gotten your payments to me, I will send out Second Notices. If you are having difficulty paying your dues, please contact me so we can work out some arrangements for payment. My phone number is in the front of this bulletin, or you can email me with your information. If your payments have not been received by March 1, 2013, you will not be able to participate in any Knights of Columbus functions.

Thank you, also, to those of you who returned your fraternal survey forms.

I just want to remind everyone that we have several events planned for this year and we need all of you to help out when you can.

I hope to see all of you at the monthly business meetings.

Memorial to Brother Earl Smith, PGK

As many of you may know, Brother Earl's family requested that in lieu of flowers, that donations be made to the Knights of Columbus in Earl's memory.

To date, the response has been very small. If any others would still like to honor Earl's memory in this way, checks addressed to "Knights of Columbus 8599" can still be sent to: KofC 8599, PO Box 387, Cypress, CA 90630, with "In Memory of Earl Smith" noted on memo line.

COMPETING RIGHTS

Politically speaking, abortion is an issue that involves competing rights. On the one hand, you have the mother's right not to be pregnant. On the other hand, you have the baby's right not to be killed. The question that must be answered is this. Which right is more fundamental? Which right has a greater claim? Abortion advocates argue that outlawing abortion would, in essence, elevate the rights of the unborn over and above those of the mother. "How can you make a fetus more important than a grown woman?", they might ask. In reality, outlawing abortion wouldn't be giving unborn children more rights, it would simply gain for them the one most fundamental right that no one can live without, the right to life. If a baby is not to be aborted, then the pregnant mother must remain pregnant. This will also require of her sickness, fatigue, reduced mobility, an enlarged body, and a new wardrobe. Fortunately, it is not a permanent condition. On the flip side, for a pregnant woman not to be pregnant, her child must be killed (unless she is past her 21st week of pregnancy, in which case the baby may well survive outside the womb). Abortion costs the unborn child his or her very life and it is a thoroughly permanent condition. This is what's at stake, both for the child and for the mother. It is not an issue of who is more important, but rather who has more on the line. Any time the rights of two people stand in opposition to each other, the government must protect the more fundamental right. Let's consider crosswalks. A car is driving down the street while a person is crossing the street. The law requires the driver of that car to slow down and stop (giving up their right to drive where they want, when they want, and at what speed they want) so that the pedestrian may cross the street in front of him. Why? Why must the driver temporarily give up his right to drive down the street just because someone else is walking across the street? Why is the right of the man on foot upheld while the right of the man in the car is denied? It is not because the pedestrian is more valuable than the driver but rather because, if the driver doesn't stop, the pedestrian will likely be killed. In order for the driver to proceed down the street at full speed, at that moment, it will cost the pedestrian his life. In order for the pedestrian to finish crossing the street, at that moment, it will cost the driver a few minutes of drive time. Obviously, for a woman to remain pregnant, she gives up far more than a few minutes of drive time, but she gives up far less than the baby who would otherwise be killed. This is what it all comes down to. Abortion permanently takes away the life of the unborn. Pregnancy temporarily takes away some of the freedoms of the mother. Since there is far more at stake for the child, the more fundamental right to life must be upheld.
