THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brothers:

Well this is it. This is my final letter as Grand Knight. This month, you will be selecting a new Grand Knight. I hope that as I leave this honored post, I leave it in capable hands.

The past 3 years have been some of the most challenging and most rewarding. As Grand Knight, I hope that I represented the Council well to the community, parish and our order. The opportunity to lead my fellow knights allows for some humbling experiences. Some no greater than honoring a brother who has passed on to meet our savior Jesus. Others come in seeing the fruits of our labors as we pass on our gifts to those we support, HOPE, St. I's Parish, School, Presentation Sisters, other brothers and the unborn. At times I grew weary, but I gain strength when I see us working together, the feeling of comradery when we are manning booths, cooking breakfast or escorting the Bishop. Each one of you has played a role in the success of our council, each of you has lifted me when I was struggling and each of you has inspired me.

As I transition to a different position within the council, I pledge my continued support for the new Grand Knight, Officers Board and our council.

Thank you for all the support and the trust that you have entrusted me with. I hope to see you at the next meeting.

Vivat Jesus!

Peter A. Morales GK

COUNCIL CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

A Fathers Prayer

A praying father reflects the love of our heavenly Father. In Matthew 7-7:11 it reads “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened to you. (8) “For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. (9) What man is there among you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? (10) Or if he asks for fish, will he give him a serpent? (11) If you then being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask.” A praying father will ask, seek and knock on behalf of his children knowing and trusting that his heavenly Father will do what is best for his child. Proverbs 29:15 tells us that a child left to himself brings shame to his family.

Let’s thank God for faithful fathers who never stop praying for their children. Henry Bosh wrote:

We thank you Lord for fathers true
Who always spoke to us of You;
Their great concern and tender care
Assured us of their constant prayer

Yes, a praying father does reflect the love of our heavenly Father.

Happy Father’s Day

Deputy Grand Knight & program Director

Brother Knights,

Another month has passed by in the speed of light. June is upon us, which means only one thing....the yearly Fiesta!! This year it will be held on the 26th, 27th, 28th. Be sure to sign up at this month's Business Meeting to work in the Sausage Booth. As most of you know our council is responsible in staffing the Sausage Booth for the whole weekend. Be part of the team and sign up for at least a shift during the Fiesta. You will have fun and enjoy working with your brother Knights.

If you would like to help with the electrical set up for the fiesta, contact Bill Serb, he can use your help (no electrical experience needed), it starts at 6pm on Thursday the 25th in the church parking lot.

The Special Olympics is being held at Long Beach State on the 13th of this month. We need your help on this special day. Be sure to contact Rick Tkach for information about this event and to find out what kind of help is needed.

I'd like to wish all of my Brother Knights a Happy Father's Day! Sunday the 21st, take the day off, you deserve it.

It's going to be busy this month, but with your help, we can get it done!

God Bless

Virgil Smith

Why So-Called Safeguards Don't Work: Physician Assisted Suicide

Part 2 of 2

So Called Safeguard: “The request must be voluntary”

Why this does not work:

- There is no language in the law prohibiting anyone from pressuring the patient to accede to doctor prescribed suicide. The Oregon Health Plan notified state health insurance recipients Barbara Wagner and Randy Stroup that the treatment they needed to survive would not be covered, but informed them that doctor prescribed death was available and would be covered.<sup>7</sup>
- There is insufficient protection from the improper motives of family or friends who apply pressure. In new proposals, an heir can actually serve as a witness for the request for doctor prescribed death.<sup>8</sup>
- In Oregon, studies and official reports show that people are regularly requesting doctor prescribed suicide because they fear becoming a burden on family and friends.<sup>9,10</sup>
- Although the law states doctors must give patients “feasible alternatives” to assisted suicide – like pain control, and hospice, there is no requirement these are covered under insurance.

So Called Safeguard: “The patient must self-administer”, so it is not euthanasia

Why this does not work:

- Although the statute claims to allow only those who can “self-administer” to request the lethal prescription, many legal observers argue that this is one court challenge away from being overruled. If, for example, there was a person with disabilities who could not swallow, there is an official legal opinion from the Oregon Attorney General’s office stating that this is unconstitutionally discriminatory.<sup>11</sup> This means that lethal injection might be one legal challenge away. This could be the case in any state that legalized the practice of doctor prescribed death.

So Called Safeguard: “The state can punish violations”

Why this does not work:

- The doctor prescribing death is held only to a “good faith standard” which is far lower than the malpractice standard applied to other health providers.<sup>12</sup>
- There is no mechanism to ensure doctors report (they self-report) or comply.
- The underlying reported data in OR and WA is destroyed by the state yearly.<sup>13</sup>
- In OR and WA, the death certificates are falsified by statute, listing only the underlying illness as the cause of death, making the real number of suicides unknowable.<sup>14</sup>

INFORMATION ON MEMBERSHIP FROM YOUR .....

Membership Director

Dear Brothers,

This will be my last article for our council's bulletin. I have decided to step down as our councils Advocate after many years in office and as the Membership Chairman. If you recall I mentioned a couple of months ago that it was time for someone else to take this officers position. Although I will not be an officer, I will still help our council with our programs. Just because I will not be an officer does not mean I won't help you officers that will be in office, I know they need support. It is better to do something than wonder if someone else will do it.

There are plenty of programs you can get involved in, so step forward and help your council out, we will need your help. In membership, Supreme has changed the membership form 100, but I don't know if you can still use the old form. The new form is half the size as the old form and not as much information is required. Just because there is only one month left in this Columbian year does not mean you stop asking that potential candidate to join our order. If you don't ask, he'll never join. This will be an experience of a life time for him.

First Degrees are held every month at Fr. Kass Council in Buena Park, on the third Monday of the month. Check-in at 7:00pm with the Degree starting at 7:30pm. The 2nd Degree is held every other month, on the 3rd Sunday with check-in at 1:00pm at Fr. Kass Council in Buena Park. The next 2nd Degree will be in July. I do not have the date for the next 3rd Degree or its location as of now. The next 4th Degree will be on the 1st Saturday in October. Have you asked a potential candidate to join our order?

A Message From Your Council.....Recorder & Respect Life, Justice & Peace Chairman

"THE LOVE THAT BRINGS NEW LIFE INTO THE WORLD"

This article appears in our May 2015 issue of COLUMBIA magazine. It is an abridged version of Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks' November 17 address at an international conference at the Vatican in 2014. It struck me so deeply that I do not want anyone to miss it. I have lifted some nuggets from the article to encourage you to read it.

In the history of civilization, two fish came together in a lake in Scotland 385 million years ago to perform the first instance of sexual reproduction known to science. Fast forward to human beings and "what emerged along with the human person was the union of the biological mother and father to care for their child." ...."what makes the first chapter of Genesis so revolutionary ... (is) its statement that every human being, regardless of race, culture, creed or class is created in the image and likeness of God." ... "there is a deep connection between monotheism and monogamy, just as there is, in the opposite direction, between idolatry and adultery."

Speaking of marriage, "The next remarkable development was the way this transformed the moral life. What was new and remarkable in the Hebrew Bible was the idea that love, not just fairness, is the driving principle of the moral life." ... "Marriage and the family are where faith finds its home and where the Divine Presence lives in the love between husband and wife, parent and child."

Another nugget came from a book the rabbi wrote: "Science takes things apart to see how they work. Religion puts things together to see what they mean. And that's a way of thinking about culture as well. Does culture put things together or take things apart?"

What made the traditional family remarkable, a work of high religious art, is what brought together: sexual drive, physical desire, friendship, companionship, emotional kinship and love, the begetting of children and their protection and care, their early education and induction into an identity and a history. Seldom has any institution woven together so many different drives and desires, roles and responsibilities. It made sense of the world and gave it a human face, the face of love."

He ends the article by reflecting on the story of the first man and woman in Genesis. "At that moment, as they were about to leave Eden and face the world as we know it, a place of darkness, Adam gave his wife the first gift of love, a personal name. And at that moment, God responded to them in love, and made them garments to clothe their nakedness, or as Rabbi Meir put it, 'garments of light.'

And so it has been ever since, that when a man and woman turn to one another in a bond of faithfulness, God robes them in garments of light, and we come as close as we will ever get to God himself, bringing new life into being, turning the prose of biology into the poetry of the human spirit, redeeming the darkness of the world by the radiance of love."

Yours in Christ,
Frank Faecke, Recorder
