THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights:

Lent. During this season of preparation Lent is aimed at grasping the intense significance of the crucifixion – that gives us a deep and powerful longing for the resurrection, the joy of Easter. During Lent we fast; at Easter we feast. During Lent we contemplate; at Easter we celebrate. Practicing Lent can change your life. Keeping this in mind, we must not forget the loved ones that have gone before us, Or have fallen ill. Keep them in your prayers.

What a fantastic feeling it is for all the Brothers come together to work the Fish Fry. Our first Friday night was a great success with all the knights there helping. Things get done quickly and efficiently when there is a lot of help. THANK YOU VERY MUCH. How great it would be to see the hall filled with our brothers. Every Knight in the council should be at our fish fry supporting our parish and the charities we support.

Thanks again to George Del Hierro. He put together a great time for Valentine's Day. Everyone thought the show at Teatro Martini was great. It was nice to see so many Knights and their wives enjoying the evening.

I am really looking forward to the recruitment month. I challenge every one of you to bring in a new Brother. A $50.00 Gift Card to the restaurant of your choice will be given to the Knight that brings in the most new members. From March 1st to the 31st. These new members should have the desire to help our council in supporting our charities.

Let's have a GREAT March recruitment drive.

Bless you

Virgil Smith GK

Why “Good” Friday

There was a lot of controversy about the origin of Good Friday. Some say it goes back as far as 100AD. Others say it was well into the fourth century before “passion week” was ever observed. Regardless of when it was started why do we call it “Good” Friday? After all, our Lord died on a cross that day why not call it “Sad” Friday or “Terrible” Friday. For that answer all we need to do is focus on what really happened on that day in history. The sins of the world were paid for! Praise the Lord. Isaiah 53:10 talks about Jesus being a guilt offering and that He bore the sins of many, He made intercession for the transgressors. On that day Jesus took on the iniquities of us all. (Isaiah 53: 6.) It was dark from noon until 3pm. (Matthew 27:45) “From the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness came over the land.” Jesus cried out in anguish “my God my God why have you forsaken me?” (Matthew 27:51) “The earth itself shook.” But after all this came the victory cry. In (John 19:30) Jesus says, “It is finished.” (Luke 23:46) “Father into your hands I commend my spirit.”

So why call it “Good” Friday? (I Peter 3:18) “Christ died for our sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body, but made alive by the Spirit.” He died so that you might live.

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.” “He died on Calvary our sins to set us free. Someday He’s coming back how glories’ that will be, wonderful his love for me”.....He lives.

A Message From Your Council.....Recorder & Respect Life, Justice & Peace Chairman

LENT=LOVE

The purpose of Lent (and Life) is to learn how to love by drawing nearer to the Greatest Love, Jesus Christ. On January 31 we heard St. Paul eloquently describe Love (1 Corinthians 12-13.) Let me lead you on a short journey I took last year with brother knight George Mergl (died February 5, 2016,) and his precious wife Betty.

Brother Ken Peterson mentioned that George, who suffered a stroke, would like Holy Communion, and Betty invited me to come. Tuesday mornings we shared Communion, amazing stories of grace, and the best coffee and sweets I have ever tasted. (Betty turned down a job once baking for a restaurant.) Through their exceptional hospitality, I came to learn of their service to the family, their neighborhood, the K of C, and St. Irenaeus. Jesus led me to look at love in action.

George was always patient and kind as he shared his amazing escape from certain execution in the former Yugoslavia in WWII. Their idyllic village was turned upside down by the Nazis, then the Communists. I too had to be patient as his story unfolded. Betty and some of her family survived a Communist Concentration Camp after the war. Neither George nor Betty were vindictive or seeking their own interests. They did not brood over terrible injury. They bore with all things, migrated to the U.S.A., learned English from scratch, and contributed so much to St. Irenaeus, the K of C, and every community they touched.

Betty took care of St. I's kindergartners for over 20 years, even when the trailer that housed the children was threatened by flood. George took care of Mother's Day flowers for at least 5 years, made the flowers prettier, and introduced corsages.

Brother Lloyd Duronslet will never forget when he took on the Phone Captain job, and George stepped forward to help him.

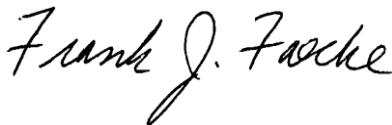

I am sure stories abound of George's service to the K of C. George and Betty were some of the first Eucharistic Ministers at St. Irenaeus. They knew their neighbors and helped them in projects and brought goodies that Betty made. She made prayer shawls to comfort the sick and grieving. In front of the Long Beach Planned Parenthood, I have handed out tiny booties Betty made. You should have seen the joy in mothers' eyes when they chose to keep their babies and have their babies' first "shoes."

Thanks to all knights and their families, especially brothers Fred Navarro and Ken Peterson, who helped make the celebration of George's life so joyful at his funeral mass. Let us continue our prayers for George as he journeys to Heaven and for Betty and her family as they seek comfort and consolation.

Yours in Christ,

Frank Faecke, Recorder

PRO-LIFE Notes •••••

Dear Brother Knights;

God has given a woman the nature to nurture and love the child she carries in her womb. That nature to love her child doesn't end with the birth or death of her child (even if by abortion). The fact is, abortion runs contrary to the nature God has given her. You could call it natural law or even the law of nature. It doesn't matter what anyone tells her or she tells herself abortion is always the worse choice she'll ever make. She'll have a sense of loss and regret that will not go away. Now the real hell begins with the silent pain and suffering that comes from abortion (the loss of her precious child!). She'll continue to grieve over the child she loves and carried in her womb. There are a number of other decisions that could have been made. Adoption is one. There are a couples looking to adopt and love her child. No woman ever regrets giving her child the gift of life. That is a fact. Life is the choice that doesn't run contrary to the nature God has given her. Life is the choice that has no regrets.

There are many who would condemn her or cast the first stone. I hope it's not you. She may even condemn herself. We don't know why abortion was the choice. It may not have been her choice. The greater sin could be yours by what you have done or failed to do.

Sincerely Yours

Thomas Nagle PGK
Pro-Life Chairman

Life Insurance as a Gift?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. "How morbid," they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you're alive... Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It's a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.
