THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Last month of February has been a very busy month for our council. If you have not attended or participated in any of these events, you are missing a lot, the friendship we develop with our brother knights the satisfaction of doing something for the community, our church and to our brother knights. Is this not reason we joined the Knights of Columbus. The 3 principles of our order, Charity, Unity and Fraternity.

We had our Ladies Night, to say thank you to our better half for allowing us to serve our council. Brother George Del Hierro, thank you for organizing a very successful event. The Clergy Night was well attended, we filled up our reservation of 20 chairs. This in appreciation to our Priest and religious. Thank you, Brother Brian Cota, job well done. We also served the students of St. Irenaeus school breakfast on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday. A tradition to consume all eggs, butter and fat in preparation of giving up those for the Lenten season.

The 9 winners of our basketball free throw contest completed Chapter Level competition (all of Orange County) Saturday, February 29. Our students came home with 2 – 3rd place trophy, 2 – 2nd place trophy and 2 – 1st place trophy. The 1st place winners will represent Orange Chapter to the State Level competition in Fresno on March 28.

We are in the Lenten season and are now serving Fish Fry every Friday. We need plenty of help from our Brother Knights, serving our St Irenaeus community in this our major event. Come join us and meet your Brother Knights.

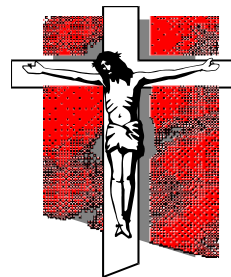

We also need your help in selling raffle tickets for a one-week vacation to The Grandview at Las Vegas. Brother Knights, you will be receiving books of raffle tickets to sell. Please try to sell all of them as this is our major fund raiser to help us in all our charities.

Please complete your Diocese Safe Environment Training, of the Knights of Columbus Safe Environment Training and Live Scan thru our parish. This new requirement is for the safety of our youth and protect our parish. Please call me if you have any questions.

In a few months our nomination committee will be selecting new officers for the next Fraternal Year 2020-2021. If you need to know more about the position, talk to me, consider being a leader and a mover to our fraternal organization. Accept the challenge,

COUNCIL CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Saint Patrick

St Patrick was known as the “Apostle of Ireland.” He was regarded with great respect by the Catholic Church, The Anglican Communion, the Lutheran Churches, the Old Catholic Church and the Eastern Orthodox Churches. He was known as the apostle and Enlightener of Ireland. St Patrick’s memorial church still stands as does a massive Statue of Saint Patrick with bronze panels showing scenes from his life.

A loving Prayer
In the name of dear Saint Patrick
This brings a loving prayer
May you forever be within
God’s ever-loving care
May your heart be filled with happiness
Your home be filled with laughter
And may the Holy Trinity
Bless your life forever after

May your home and life be blessed with all Gods special favor that makes you Happiest

NSS

Your Council’s

CHANCELLOR

Brothers,

The Bishop has declared this a year of prayer.

Prayer is the cry of the heart. Sometimes our own words fail us (Romans 8:26). We can ask the Holy Spirit to pray through us.

Prayer is a conversation with God. Which means that the sometimes I speak and sometimes I listen. I listen with my heart and the way God speaks to my heart is mysterious but consoling. Sometimes God is silent. But sometimes I’m just not listening.

We can rely on the prayers of the Church – ancient and new. These prayers both lift our hearts to God and remind us of the truth of His loving presence and promises.

LENTEN REFLECTION FROM FATHER MICHAEL HIGGINS
MATER DOLOROSA RETREAT CENTER

Do you ever feel discouraged or even desperate?

When I find myself feeling low and discouraged, I often turn to the Scriptures for some light and maybe even some encouragement. One of my favorite stories that help to lift me out of my dark feelings is found in the 37th Chapter of the Book of Ezekiel. Perhaps it's one of your favorites as well.

As the story begins, we find Ezekiel discouraged and desperate. For months he had been prophesying to the people of Israel about the dire effects their behavior was having on their future. Their greed, neglect of the poor, abuse of the weak and worship of false gods were destroying their society and sapping their national identity and strength. Most of the people resisted listening to Ezekiel's warnings but his deepening awareness of how desperate the situation had become was driving Ezekiel himself to despair, as well as those few who were listening to him.

In response to Ezekiel's discouragement, God gives him a vision of a great plain covered with human bones, dry disjointed old bones scattered across the plain. God asks Ezekiel whether he thinks these old dry bones can come back to life. Ezekiel wisely responds that only God could possibly know that. Then God instructs Ezekiel to prophesy that God will indeed, bring these old bones to life. As Ezekiel makes the prophecy, the bones do come back to life, human life with warm flesh and renewed spirit.

God tells Ezekiel that all is not lost. Just as God brought new life to the bones in his vision, so God will bring new life to the people of Israel. Ezekiel need not despair, he can trust God's fidelity to His people. "I have promised, and I will do it, says the Lord."

What a great vision! The message God gave to Ezekiel is for us as well. And we certainly need it. Just think about how many old dried bones there are in our lives. We can look around and be so discouraged by the scandals in the Church, the injustice we witness and even experience, the violence in our world, the disappointment, anger and darkness that may even be in our own hearts. So many dried dead bones all around us and perhaps within us. It's easy to be overwhelmed by the dead bones that surround us.

Through Ezekiel God reminds us that even dead bones can be brought back to life by the power of God. And that power will prevail because God will be faithful to us, just as God was faithful to the people of Ezekiel's time. So we can take heart and trust in God's love and compassion for us and for our world.

When discouraged, where do I go for encouragement? Do the many stories about God's unswerving fidelity to us lift my spirits? Does trust in God elude me sometimes? Or, does it bring some perspective to my life?

The Story of the Well

An undernourished well receives no sympathy,
Once used, or replenished they leave me to nature;
Suddenly I am now a landmark of where others used me,
And then deserted me, once I was spent.

Yet, I am not done, but rather waiting,
Patiently,
Until I can be of service again.
