THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Here is an extract on the article Bro Irv Cuevas submitted to Knightline. Thank you to Irv Cuevas. Click on the link below.

Dear Mr. Cuevas,

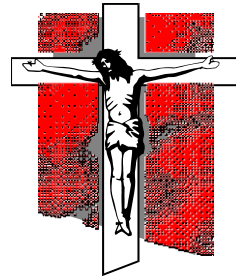

Thank you again for sending us your news! We have included a report of the project in a recent update of the Knights in Action web page, posted at <http://www.kofc.org/en/knights-in-action/>. The report will appear online only; it will be visible on the Knights in Action homepage for approximately one month, after which time it will be available in the Knights in Action online archive for approximately three years. The web page offers the fullest, most current view of how geographically diverse K of C units serve their communities on a local level.

The volume of reports we receive is far greater than can fit in the limited “Knights in Action” section of Columbia. Because of this, the staff works to bring the wide array of projects by Knights to light on the web page, where they can serve as information resource and inspiration to other K of C members as well as readers who may not belong to the Order. For anyone seeking to learn more about the Knights, the reports collected online display the wonderful variety of good works performed by Knights across the globe.

Thank you,
Rolly Arenz

The Most Important Person.....

The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral. A dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body... The angels have not been blessed with such a grace. They cannot share in God's creative miracle to bring new saints to Heaven. Only the human mother can. Mothers are closer to God than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation... What on God's good earth is more glorious than this: to be a mother.

Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty

Psalms 139:13-16

For you created my innermost being: You knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know them well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

When mother prayed! O peace divine!

My mother's God today is mine.

Deputy Grand Knight & program Director

Dear Brothers:

I hope this month is finding you and your family well as we live through another month of Corona Virus. What we need to remember is that we are still in the joyous Easter Season where we celebrate the resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. This extreme situation has taught us to be resilient in the face of hardship. So far we've successfully had an Officer Meeting and General Meeting virtually and it looks like we will do so in the month of May as well. Please join your brother Knights online for these meetings so we continue to fellowship and can get your opinion and ideas. If you have not done so already, please sign up for a free account at www.zoom.us so you can easily join our virtual meetings.

That being said, no live events are planned during the month of May, but we will have our online Officer and General Meetings as noted below. Also, keep in mind that we are planning to draw the winner of our Fish Fry Raffle sometime in May. The winner will receive a week at the Las Vegas timeshare at the end of June as advertised in the flyer. However, if the timeshare is not available due to shutdown orders, the winner will receive a cash prize. Please continue to check your email as the Grand Knight could announce activities to support the "No Neighbor Left Behind" program after we discuss it with Fr. Bihn.

Please continue to follow the direction of our Governor, health officials and our pastor. Please continue to follow safe practices and keep praying and attending online masses. We will get through this situation together and we will leave no neighbor behind.

May God richly bless you and your families during this Easter Season.

- May 14 (Thursday) Virtual Officer Meeting - begins at 7 pm
- May 20 (Wednesday) Virtual Business Meeting and Divine Mercy Chaplet - Begins at 7:30 pm
- June June events are on hold pending the outcome of the Quarantine

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

I hope this letter finds you all safe and healthy.

The name pulled for “Good of the Order” drawing at our April online meeting for $10.00 was Dante Garcia, who was present. Dante asked the money be donated to HOPE.

Supreme Council hosted a first ever online Exemplification Ceremony, which now incorporates the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Degrees all together. We had 6 new members join our Council, and 5 others advance from 1st or 2nd Degree to 3rd Degree. We had 5 Council brothers who attended as observers. We now have a total of 231 members. Nationally, a total of 2,138 men were admitted to the order during this exemplification, with 7,009 advancing to the 3rd Degree.

There are still 88 members who haven't paid their 2020 dues yet. Our Council has an account funded by member donations to provide dues assistance to help all our Council members having financial difficulty to remain in good standing. So if you are having difficulty paying your 2020 dues, please contact me or our Grand Knight. Phone numbers are in the front of this bulletin, or you can email me with your information.

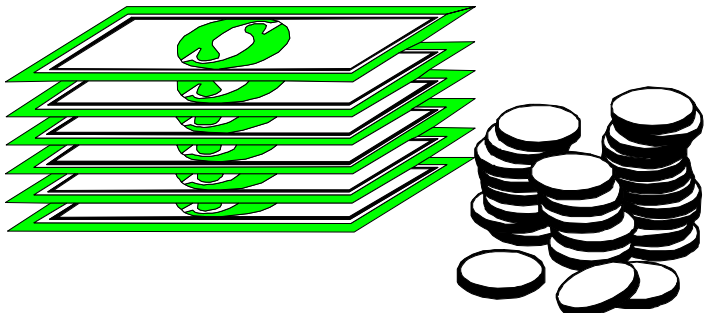

If any of our brother Knights have lost their jobs due to the current pandemic, please contact our Grand Knight, Rolly Arenz, as we may be able to provide some assistance getting food.

Don't forget to check out our Monthly Bulletin on our website <http://www.kofc8599.org> as it usually includes pictures from our recent Council events. I hope to see all of you at the next Council Business Meeting in May, probably online.

Vivat Jesus !

Abortion Activists Face Lawsuit after Kicking, Shoving and Harassing Peaceful Pro-Lifers

TOM CIESIELKA - BRISTOL, TENNESSEE

Pro-life advocates in Bristol, Tennessee are under attack, and the Thomas More Society is intervening on their behalf. In January 2020 the not-for-profit national public interest law firm helped file multiple petitions for orders of protection against members of a radical pro-abortion organization.

The offenders have harassed and threatened numerous pro-life individuals outside of the Bristol Regional Women's Center abortion facility in recent months. The aggressors have recently directed their attacks on Erika Schanzenbach, a peaceful pro-life witness and sidewalk counselor. Now, with the help of the Thomas More Society, Schanzenbach is fighting back, going to court to get protective orders against her most egregious abusers.

Thomas More Society Counsel Michael McHale explained that the offenders have often sought out Schanzenbach for harassment wherever she stands, even when she remains across the street from the abortion facility to avoid confrontation. The offenders subject Schanzenbach to a variety of abuses, including surrounding her and blocking her from view with large, open umbrellas; licking her arms; following her very closely wherever she walks – even back to her vehicle hundreds of feet away from the abortion facility; stealing and destroying her leaflets; and hurling profanities, taunts, and obscene gestures directly in her face.

“These actions are blatantly illegal, and they are unacceptable in a civilized society,” McHale said. “Everyone has the right to peacefully advocate their beliefs on public streets and sidewalks without being bullied into silence. While we continue to ask local authorities to stop this illegal abuse, we are eager to help Ms. Schanzenbach secure some measure of relief in civil court.”

These abusers boast online about their illegal conduct, identifying themselves as “Pro-Choice Bristol.” Their Facebook-posted “Pink Manifesto” states that they will “use any means necessary to physically block” pro-life witnesses “from sight” and will do “anything at all not being enforced equally for the protection of patients whether demonstrably legal or not.” The radical group also declares that “When local government fails” it will “step in.”

Schanzenbach has been on the receiving end of harassment, abuse, and stalking by Denise Skeen, along with Denise's adult daughters, Alethea and Rowan. Each is named as a respondent in petitions for court orders of protection. Also named is Cheryl Hanzlik, who on multiple occasions has attempted to cause permanent hearing damage by pointing a bullhorn blaring loud police siren sounds directly into Schanzenbach's face. Supplemental court complaints have also been filed against Hanzlik and Alethea Skeen for ongoing illegal harassment.

Along with McHale, Schanzenbach is also being represented by Thomas More Society Senior Counsel Martin Cannon and local counsel Andrew Fox. After the initial January 2020 court hearing, the cases will return to court in April 2020. At that time Schanzenbach's legal team will present substantial video evidence and live witness testimony demonstrating the ongoing abuse against her.

Video documentation of the harassment endured by Schanzenbach is publicly available online at: <https://youtu.be/ZdsJjgQeliI>, <https://youtu.be/3ITnPmTPzgQ>, and <https://youtu.be/dfUO46WFPfU>.

"Ms. Schanzenbach has been terrorized while exercising her freedom to peacefully express her opinion," McHale declared. "She has been stalked, threatened, and frightened, while attempting to share life-affirming alternatives with abortion-minded women – something that she is fully within her Constitutional rights to do," he added. "We expect the court to protect Ms. Schanzenbach to the full extent of the law."

NO GREATER GIFT

By Frank Faecke

On Good Friday I share my thoughts. It is 2020, a year as Dickens said is the best of times and the worst of times. The bad/worst is easy to find. Every publication screams of the thousands stricken by the Corona virus and the many that die from it. Schools, entertainment places, restaurants, public gathering spots, and houses of worship have locked their doors. We all wait to hear of a cure for this merciless virus that has flown about the world.

What about the best? Up until this day I have attended daily mass broadcast by Word On Fire from Santa Barbara, California. There Bishop Robert Barron and Father Stephen, CEO of Word On Fire, have shared their celebration of daily mass from the bishop's small chapel. The over 200,000 viewers can receive spiritual communion with Jesus at mass. The priests' reflections on sacred scripture have been deep and powerful! It has been food for the soul for my wife Julie and me.

I believe these days have provided a retreat for the whole world, a time to withdraw from the world and draw close to family and dear friends and to reflect on what is really true and important. Julie and I have seen a couple of moving programs on Public Television, One has been an ongoing study of Sacred Places all around the world. It seems that all people on earth have special places where thousands and even millions of folks gather to worship God or gods whom they revere. I asked myself if they really believe in a spiritual being or beings and build magnificent structures. You bet!

Another film took us to August 1945, when Windermere, England became a place of redemption for 300 Jewish orphans. Two docudramas told the story of a wealthy, determined British man who restored them to life and later helped 700 more. He had already witnessed children who survived Nazi concentration camps, and his heart went out to them. By successfully lobbying the British government and with the help of a charity this man brought together adult survivors of the Holocaust to help the children. The team included a Jewish psychiatrist, a Rabbi, a married couple, and an art teacher/therapist who was a friend of Anna Freud. That group hired a kind Scottish man to coach the boys in soccer.

We saw an old photograph in the film of a train car loaded with the orphan children before they came to England. It was taken just after they had been liberated by Russians. The children were slated to have been executed the next day by Nazi troops. The first 300 children ranged in age from three to teens. All had been ravaged by godless German soldiers and most had lost all relatives in the Final Solution.

These precious, broken children were flown from Europe to an airport near Windermere, an abandoned secret site where seaplanes had been constructed in a factory during the war. It was a wooded area with a pristine lake and comfortable barracks. Some of the men and women who had been part of the Windermere experiment were still alive and interviewed in the film. They were in their 90s and told of going from Hell to Heaven during the four months spent at Windermere. After four months of schooling in English, eating healthy meals, getting plenty of exercise, and meeting lifelong friends, the children were placed with families. Most of them married, and all became

Knights Tied for Most Financially Strong Life Insurer in North America

Dear Brother Knights,

A few days ago, S&P Global Ratings issued a report that ranked all of its rated North American Life Insurance Companies from strongest to weakest. You should be proud to know that your Knights of Columbus are tied for first!*

The Knights is one of six companies - out of a total of 66 - that has a AA+ rating on financial strength, and a stable outlook. S&P also lists the Knights as having a “very strong” business risk profile, and an “excellent” financial risk profile.

Financial strength and stability are on a lot of people’s minds lately, and it’s reassuring to know that the Knights stand tall among the competition.

However this unprecedented international crisis may be impacting your family, please know that I am here to help you review your situation, and discuss how the Knights may be able to help. And - to respect social distancing protocols - we have transitioned to virtual meetings. I can meet with you over the computer whenever you’d like.

Let me know some times that work for you, and together we can figure out how the Knights’ best-in-class financial strength can help protect you and your family.

Thank You & God Bless.

British citizens thankful for redemption. Those filmed included a gold medal Olympic weightlifter, a dentist, a jeweller, etc.

Today we’ll hear the story of another Jewish man who died almost 2,000 years ago. He loved the world and all people, who were his creation. We’ll reflect on his agony in a garden where he sweat blood, his scourging with thirty-nine lashes, his crowning with thorns, stripping of his clothes, and utter humiliation while hanging naked from a cross. How could he show only love in such extreme persecution? Why would any human being lay down his life for both good and bad? Was he 100% man and 100% God? As we live through these dark times, I realized that the person I admire, love, and worship walked the earth in much darker times! Happy Easter and Alleluia!
