THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights:

"Let it be done to me according to thy will"

In the month of May, we celebrate our Blessed Mother, the Virgin Mary, who showed her selfless love by graciously accepting the will of God. We also celebrate our Mothers and the Mothers of our children. Please follow the example of Paul and "Love your wives as Christ loved the Church". In May we expect to open up more church capacity, which will allow for larger in-person gatherings and events like we were used to. We plan to coordinate with Fr. Binh on how the Knights can open up the church again safely so watch your email for upcoming details. We will need your support and ideas to make this happen.

I'd like to thank all the brother Knights who served faithfully in April to help our parish and community. Thanks go to you and your family members who continue to feed the hungry through our bimonthly HOPE food distributions. We are still serving many neighbors through these food drives so keep up the good work. I'd also like to thank the faithful Knights who help set up, take down and clean the chairs for the flagpole masses and those who help with the live stream to bring the Mass to the home of our less mobile neighbors. I especially thank the steady Knights who are praying at our virtual rosaries and Divine Mercy chaplets. Your prayers are having a profound effect on those who need it. There is plenty of room for you to join us on Tuesday nights at 7 pm.

May will be a busy month for us from start to finish, so we will definitely need your help. On the weekend of May 8-9, we will sell flowers on Mother's Day to support the Santa Ana Life Center. Please sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090945AF22AAFA7-mothers1> On May 15th, there will be a live and virtual exemplification for all 4 degrees. Please see Rolly for more information to join in this event to improve your current ranking. At the end of the month, we will have the Fraternal Benefits Insurance webinar with Van Mueller speaking. In addition, on Memorial Day weekend, we plan to have our Veteran's Wheelchair drive and we will need your help to support all the Masses. My final thought is a reminder for help. Please invite at least one (or more) friend, acquaintance or parishioner to join the Knights! They can easily join online at kofc.org. Join us and their first year is FREE if registered by June 30. Our community needs us more than ever and many hands make for light work.

God bless you and your families for your service to others!

Vivat Jesus,

Rick Tkach

A Blessing for all Mothers

Being a Mom is a high calling. To nurture and shepherd God's own children. And in this calling we bless you.

We bless you to be wise. To see what is hidden, to hear what is not said. To know when to speak and when to listen. We bless your discernment. May you hear the whisper of God on behalf of His children. We bless your words. May you speak goodness and kindness. May you strengthen, encourage and comfort with great skill. May your children thrive in your praise and correction. May God bless you that you have time to walk closely with Him. May you be free to be yourself and enjoy all that God has given you. May your home be blessed with peace and love, filled with light and joy. We bless you to be a reflection of God, that you will reflect the meaning of love, of truth and hope, of faith and trust and grace and generosity and humility so your children will see your love for God.

We ask that God would grant you, according to the riches of His Glory and that Christ will dwell in your heart through faith. That you will know the love of Christ which passes all knowledge. That you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

You are a blessing to your family and to all who know you. May God bless you this mother's day and every day and may your children call you blessed. Proverbs 31:28 "Her children rise up and call her blessed: her husband also and he praises her." Proverbs 31:31 "Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise. "Luke 2:51 "And his mother treasured up all these things in her heart."

Nothing touches a child like a mother's love. God has charged you with molding this tiny heart and there is nothing better than a Bible reading, God fearing, Jesus loving, praying Mom. You plant seeds of faith for generations to come.

Happy Mother's Day

VENTURA HOPE

I believe that many of us are looking for hope as the ravages of COVID-19 are lessening. The Easter theme of sermons by Pope Francis, Bishop Robert Barron, and our pastor, Father Binh Nguyen, was the hope surfacing after the long Lent of the Corona Virus. In his Easter morning homily, Father Binh spoke joyfully of being able to open St. Irenaeus Church to 50% capacity. His sharing was entirely positive and full of hope.

The day after Easter Sunday, my family and I took a short vacation. We drove just over two hours eighty miles to Ventura, CA. We parked for free in a city structure. We had time before check in at our motel; so we took a walking tour.

Just a few blocks away from us, we visited San Buenaventura Mission, one of the most beautiful of the California missions. Father Junipero Serra raised a cross on Santa Barbara Channel on Easter morning, March 31, 1782. He dedicated the mission named after Saint Bonaventure, a Franciscan, on September 9, 1809. The city name was later shortened to Ventura because of a railroad map, which abbreviated the full name.

We entered through the mission gift shop/museum, which was the main entry point of the old mission where visitors were welcomed. In the museum we marveled at enormous wooden bells encased in a glass cabinet. The bells were extremely rare and thought to have been struck by wooden sticks, not rung. Among the many artifacts left from years past was a small wooden confessional. In it was placed a monitor which played a documentary on Father Serra's life.

I learned that Father Serra voluntarily left a prestigious university professorship in Spain to evangelize in the New World. A brilliant man, he learned the indigenous language to share Good News. During his mission days, he walked hundreds of miles to what is now Mexico City to plead with his superior for a bill of rights to protect Indian converts, who were being abused by Spanish soldiers. On that journey, he was bitten by some insect. He suffered from that infection for the rest of his life.

The courtyard outside the museum was covered by green grass, shrubs, flowers, palm trees, and walk ways. The pleasant weather comforted us as we strolled past statues of saints, the Olive Press, and the Settling Tank. Padre Cambon, whom Father Serra left in charge of the mission, built an aqueduct seven mile long to bring San Buenaventura River water to the mission. English navigator George Vancouver called the flourishing orchards and gardens the finest he had ever seen.

After reading more mission history on illustrated signs, such as "Chumash Daily Life At The Mission," we reverently stepped into the long rectangular church, which still holds services. Remarkable paintings portrayed the Stations of the Cross and hung along the white walls. Beautiful wooden beams supported the roof. Beside the altar an enormous crucifix with the Suffering Christ hung on the left. A large painting of Our Lady of Guadalupe looked down on us from the right of the altar. The other end of the church had a room of sacred objects, including a tiny relic from the "true cross." We also marveled at a cast marble statue of Michelangelo's Pieta, 73/100 scale made from a mold of the original, gifted to the mission in 2018.

We left the mission and explored more of Ventura on foot. Several streets were blocked off from traffic, allowing pedestrians to enjoy parks and sites. Museums and even the gleaming white marble city hall were still closed due to COVID-19. There were art works around, such as a panorama dedicated to the hard-working early Chinese settlers. We observed several homeless folks just hanging out, but we also walked past at least ten different thrift shops! One was even dedicated to helping abandoned/abused pets. I had never seen so many thrift stores in one small city! It seemed the people of Ventura really wanted to help everyone. One park had a giant Adirondack chair, which was across the street from a K of C hall.

We ate supper on Ventura Pier, the longest wooden pier in the USA. Having walked between 9,000 and 11,000 steps, we had no trouble falling asleep. Our motel was only 500 yards from the ocean and was very quiet, even though it was full of guests. The next morning we enjoyed our free breakfasts, which were safe and nutritious. The hard-working, friendly staff hosed off sidewalks and kept the place immaculately clean.

After breakfast we drove up a high hill behind city hall to Serra Cross, an enormous dark wooden beam structure honoring Father Serra's first cross. There was a nice grassy park around it, and several other tourists walked around wearing masks and enjoying the panoramic view of the entire city and the ocean. A cool ocean breeze swept over us on this sunny day. I was shocked by graffiti sprayed at the base of the cross. It read, "NO GOD...NO MASTERS...ONLY MACHINES." I said a silent prayer for the lost soul who painted the message and seemed to have no hope.

We spent most of our last full day hiking through the nearby Botanical Gardens and other trails in the area. Before the day ended, we drove a mile or two south of Ventura to the Channel Islands National Park Service Center and toured its museum. Only one company was sending boats to the Channel Islands, and all were booked. It seems that we missed the boat. We did enjoy walking around the harbor and scoping out both the large and tiny boats. A tiny beaten up silver boat had a sign which read, "Floggings will continue until morale improves!"

Our last stop was for supper. Back at our motel, my pedometer read 8,942 steps. After cards and trivia questions from our son, we all settled in for a cozy rest.

The next morning after another filling, delicious, nourishing breakfast, we checked out and hit the 101 Highway. Our joy was short-lived. About nine miles down the road while driving at 65, the speed limit, I suddenly came upon an aluminum stepladder, which I tried to straddle but clipped its edge. I stopped when safe and called 911. Someone had already reported it. We got back on the 101. A few minutes later, the truck next to us in the slow lane dropped a long metal pipe into his lane. Fortunately, he stopped on the shoulder. During our remaining safe trip home I reflected on all our blessings and the hope found in Ventura. I thanked our Guardian Angels and all the Holy Ones for their help!

May we all live with Faith, Hope, and Charity,

Frank J. Faেকে, Recorder

Your Council's – Membership Director

Brother Knights,

Please extend a warm welcome to our new brother knight Wasono Wen, who completed his Charity, Unity and Fraternity Exemplification last March 27, 2021 at San Antonio de Padua Church.

Our church is opening up, we are now allowed 50% capacity of the church in 500 people are now allowed for inside worship. We now can meet our fellow parishioners that we have not seen for over a year. Our ministries are coming back ministering as hospitality, eucharistic and lectors. Our Knights in White are serving funerals again as altar servers. We can now start to invite our men in our parish who are not yet a knight to join us in serving our church and community.

Joining the Knights of Columbus thru e-membership is free for the first year. To join visit kofc.org/joinus and enter code McGivney2020. Make sure they put in Council 8599 and St. Irenaeus Parish, and make sure check the box (Yes) to allow contact by the council. We are still 6 short of our goal of 9 new members.

The next exemplification is scheduled for Saturday, May 15, 2021. I will give you more information as they become available.

For my brother knights who are not 3rd Degree, you can attend the exemplification of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity on May 15, call me if you are interested. A good opportunity to complete your Knighthood Degree (3rd).

Do you know that we have our own Facebook page, “Knights of Columbus 8599”. Check on “Like” and “Following”. Share the page with your friends. Help us promote our council.
