Give Thanks In All Things

1Thessalonians 5:18 Give thanks in all circumstances for this is Gods will for you in Christ Jesus. It's easy to be thankful when everything is going well. Your family, your job, you have a warm and comfortable home. Your children are all in good health. But what happens when things become a little more difficult or your whole life seems to be turning upside down. How is it possible to give thanks if our life has been plagued with discouragement, disappointment disaster or even death? Our best example of giving thanks in all things comes when Jesus was in the upper room with His disciples and He broke the bread saying to them Luke 22:19 "This is my body which will be given for you do this in remembrance of me." He knew what lay ahead for Him. He knew the horrible suffering He was going to endure on the cross. He wasn't giving thanks for the suffering He was giving thanks for what was beyond the cross. He was giving thanks for what He knew it would mean for us. John 16:33 I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart I have overcome the world.

So how can we give thanks in all circumstances? The way Jesus did. Look beyond the problem in front of you and find the Joy beyond it. If you believe Jesus promise is real, then there is no one that can steal your thanksgiving.

Psalms 136 Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His steadfast love endures forever.
Philippians 4:6-7 do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God and the peace that transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ

Planned Parenthood Lawsuit Tries to Punish Pro-Lifers Who Exposed Its Baby Part Sales as Criminals

Planned Parenthood brought the case against Newman, Susan Merritt, David Daleiden, the Center for Medical Progress, and the CMP's alter-ego, Biomax, in 2016, after the release of a series of undercover videos that revealed Planned Parenthood's participation in the illegal trafficking of aborted baby remains for profit.

In an ironic twist, instead of Planned Parenthood being held accountable, the largest abortion organization in America have brought the pro-life journalists to court and accused them of corruption and racketeering.

The American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ) is representing Newman in this case, who was sued due to his service as a board member of the Center for Medical Progress during the three-year undercover investigation.

Why this case is important

Despite the Planned Parenthood case and an earlier lawsuit filed by the National Abortion Federation (which is currently on hold until the conclusion of the Planned Parenthood case), the CMP investigation was a game-changer.

The ACLJ wrote:

In light of CMP's investigative reporting, the United States Senate and House of Representatives conducted thorough investigations into illegal, unethical, and immoral practices within the abortion and fetal tissue procurement industries.

The resulting House Report and Senate Report contain shocking, first-hand evidence of unconscionable criminal and illegal actions by abortion providers and fetal tissue procurement companies. The reports contain, among other things, evidence of profiting from the sale of fetal organs (including the payment of bonuses for procuring organs that were highly sought after by researchers), altering abortion procedures for financial gain, performing illegal partial-birth abortions, killing newborns who survived attempted abortions, failing to obtain informed consent for fetal tissue donations, and fraudulent overbilling practices.

The Congressional investigators asked various law enforcement and regulatory bodies to investigate the offending organizations for possible criminal prosecution. Additionally, a $7.8 million court settlement was filed in California under which DaVinci Biosciences, LLC and DV Biologics, LLC admitted liability for their role in the unlawful sale of fetal tissue and stem cells for profit. Further, the Texas Health and Human Services Commission's Office of Inspector General ("OIG") concluded, based on the CMP videos and the Congressional investigation, "that [Planned Parenthood] at a minimum violated federal standards regarding fetal tissue research and standards of medical ethics."

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

Next month I will be sending out the membership dues letters for 2020. If you have had a change of address, or are not receiving Chapter Email, please send the new information to me either by regular mail or email. Email is mmercer38@gmail.com

We still have 70 members delinquent in getting their 2019 Dues paid, which is depriving our charities of $2,240.00. If your dues are delinquent, please pay this month to avoid suspension. We are a fraternal organization and we think of our members as our brothers, so we want to do all that is possible to avoid suspension. If you are having difficulty paying your dues, please contact me or Rolly Arenz, GK, as our Council now has an account funded by member donations to provide dues assistance to help all our Council members remain in good standing.

I have Council badges for new members that have joined our ranks. Please see me at the next business meeting to obtain yours. I have a couple boxes full of badges that have never been picked up.

A copy of Form 1728a individual worksheet for the Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity is attached. Please complete and return no later than our January Business Meeting. The Knights of Columbus is recognized as a fraternal benefit society under IRS Section 501(c) (8). Data received from all Form 1728 received by Supreme Council assist in maintaining compliance with the IRS.

I hope to see you all at our November Meeting.

A Message From Your Council.....Recorder & Respect Life, Justice & Peace Chairman

Five Myths About Christopher Columbus (from America Needs Fatima)

1. MYTH: Columbus was sailing to prove the world was round.

FACT: Every educated person at the end of the fifteenth century knew the earth was a sphere, a fact known since antiquity. What was in dispute was the earth's circumference, which Columbus underestimated by one-fourth.

2. MYTH: Queen Isabella sold her crown jewels to finance the first journey.

FACT: The royal treasury of Spain was depleted after the completion of the conquest of Granada early in 1492. However, Luis de Santangel, the royal treasurer, was able to secure funding by reaching out to the Crusading societies throughout the Mediterranean, as well as other financial backers from Spain and elsewhere. The crown put up very little to finance the journey.

3. MYTH: There was a priest on board the Santa Maria in 1492.

FACT: Because of the dangers involved, there were no priests or friars on the first voyage, despite the deep piety of Columbus. Many of the paintings of the first landfall in the new world on San Salvador show a priest with Columbus—contrary to the facts. There were five priests on the second voyage: Benedictine Father Buil; the Jeronymite Father Ramon Pane; and three Franciscans.

4. MYTH: Columbus introduced slavery to the New World.

FACT: Slavery was already widespread among the native Indians when Columbus arrived. Columbus was insistent on the fair treatment of the Indians, a policy which gained him many enemies as governor of Hispaniola. Bartolome de las Casas, a Spanish friar who worked for the protection of the Indians, is quick to excoriate his fellow Spaniards in their grave abuses, but is filled with nothing but respect and admiration for Columbus. The mass subjugation and importation of Africans to the Americas did not begin until a generation after Columbus' death.

5. MYTH: Columbus died a pauper, in chains, in a Spanish prison.

FACT: Despite the fact that the Spanish crown retracted some of the privileges promised to Columbus, he was relatively wealthy at the time of his death. Although he returned to Spain in chains in 1500 after his third voyage, the King and Queen apologized for the misunderstanding and had them removed.

On May 20, 1506, the Vigil of the Ascension, Christopher Columbus lay on his deathbed in his apartment at Valladolid, surrounded by his fellow Franciscans and his sons. As the friars chanted Compline, his last words echoed those of Christ on the cross: In manus tuas, Domine, commendo spiritum meum. (Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.)

Love and prayers,

Frank J. Faecke

The videos are also credited for providing the inspiration for the Protect Life Rule, which disqualifies organizations that conduct or refer for abortions from receiving Title X family planning grants. This new rule deprives Planned Parenthood of $6 million in tax-payer funding each year.

Case meant to punish pro-life journalists

Perhaps because of the outstanding criminal investigation, the civil case against the pro-life activists has been aggressively pursued by Planned Parenthood and its phalanx of attorneys from the powerful Morrison & Foerster law firm, which boasts of over 1,000 employees in 17 offices around the world, and a client list that includes, Intel, Yahoo!, and UPS.

The case has been anything but routine. Due to a gag order and a designation of “for attorneys’ eyes only” on many details of the case, much of what should be said cannot be discussed in public at this time.

There can be no doubt that this case is meant to punish pro-life journalists from speaking out when they uncover criminal conduct within the abortion cartel, with the hope that it will act as a deterrent to any future abortion-related investigations.

What’s at stake

While there are no criminal penalties associated with this civil case, Planned Parenthood is accusing Newman and the other defendants of violating the Racketeer-Influenced Corrupt Organizations Act for going undercover at Planned Parenthood and NAF meetings. Should they lose, Planned Parenthood is seeking $16 million from the pro-life defendants in addition to potentially crippling punitive damages and millions in attorney fees.

This case could also forever change the way journalists collect information and conduct undercover investigations, which would stifle the First Amendment Freedom of the Press. The media are at their best serving the public good when their investigations uncover and expose criminal conduct, and aid in the administration of justice, just as Newman and the CMP journalists did when they uncovered Planned Parenthood’s underground baby parts trafficking business.
