THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Thank you for all the Knights who helped in our September activities: the HOPE food distributions, helping to set up the outdoor Masses on Saturday and Sunday, and a special thanks to Brother Irv Cuevas, who helped give our council great publicity by writing a Star Council recognition article for the bulletin, and multiple press releases on our blood drive that got in the local paper, the OC Catholic Newspaper and Columbian online. This publicity will definitely help our recruiting efforts for new Knights.

October brings to us a new month and season of service opportunities. We have the option to participate in many events that will count toward our Star Council award, such as Into the Breach video series, online Rosary meetings, Holy Hour, Spiritual Reflection, Keep Christ in Christmas, Consecration to the Holy Family, Coats for Kids, and the Global Wheelchair mission. I will be looking for leaders for these events and communicating frequently when they will start happening, so keep checking your email! I've also sent out a list of Directors and Activity Chairmen so you know some good people to talk to about these events. I'm available for questions as well.

We will also keep you informed of when the church will open up further and let you know how you can help. We are currently resuming funeral services for limited audiences and will need altar servers at those Masses. Please continue to think of ways that our Council can help St. Irenaeus and the community at large as service needs tend to get bigger as we get closer to Christmas. Also, please set up some time to participate in the Father Michael J. McGivney Beatification Mass. Take some time to learn more about our founder, pray for intentions and canonization and encourage your friends to participate as well.

I'm extremely blessed to have such a giving, helpful chapter and I know that as a team we can accomplish many wonderful things this year! "Pray that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ." (Colossians 4:3)

May God richly bless you and your families.

Vivat Jesus,
Rick Tkach

Make the Connection

Prayer was an important part of Jesus ministry. Mark 1:35 “Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daybreak He went out to a solitary place; and there He prayed.” Jesus prepared for the day with prayer. Matthew 14:23 Jesus went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. Jesus valued prayer so much that He spent many hours alone in prayer with His father.

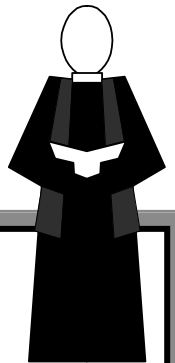

We need to stay connected to God through prayer. The writer in Psalms 119 talks about the importance of that connection. He asks God to teach him and give him an understanding of His law. He prays that he will observe it with all his heart and that he will walk in the path of Gods commandments. Psalms 119:105 your word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.”

God has given us His word to light our path to lead us to Him and has shown us how to pray through our daily struggles, how to pray for forgiveness and prayer that we would be delivered from evil ways.

Prayer lifts our hope when we are going through personal tragedy. Prayer enables us to cast our burdens on the Lord when the weight is too much for us to carry. Prayer gives us a connection to our Loving Father who hears not only our words but who listens to our heart.

You can see Gods hand in so many ways, a beautiful sunrise a note of encouragement from a friend a bible verse that touches your heart. So many beautiful ways that God says “Yes I am still hear and I hear you. Keep the connection.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

First, I want to congratulate Dennis J Montoya, whose name was drawn at our September Membership Meeting. Unfortunately, Dennis wasn't present to win the $30, so next month's drawing will be for $40. Be there for a chance to win. You don't even need to leave home.

It was great to see many of you at our September Member Meeting on Zoom. If you weren't there, check it out and join us on Wednesday, October 21st. "Doors" open at 6:30. Look for your email invitation link from Knights of Columbus 2 or 3 days prior to the meeting. If you don't see it, please check your spam folder, or contact any of the officers for login details. As brother Lloyd Duronslet says, "If he can do it, anyone can do it".

I hope you all took advantage of the member benefits webinar on Sept 17th sponsored by the California Field Agents, as it was really well done. In follow up, I encourage all brothers to take the time to meet our Insurance Advisor, Brother Mark McNery, to learn about all the benefits and programs available to members of the Knights of Columbus. His phone number is (562) 682-3394 cell, (582) 493-3394 office and Email is: mark.mcinery@kofc.org

Also, be sure to update your contact information whenever it changes so we can keep in contact and you don't miss out on upcoming opportunities and Council events. If you aren't receiving Council Email from "Knights of Columbus", we don't have your current info.

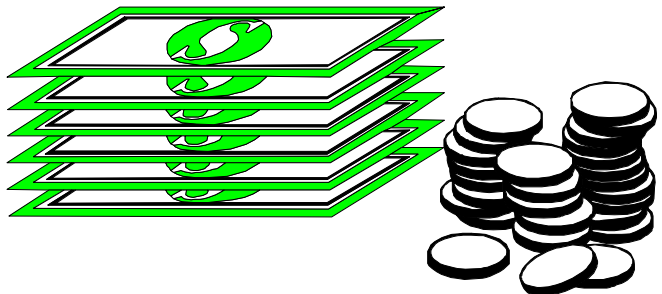

Knights of Columbus Disaster Relief (800-694-5713 or www.kofc.org/disaster) assists disaster victims, with 100% of donations directly benefiting disaster victims, often partnering with local Councils. Many Councils in California are very involved in relief efforts

I hope to see you all at our October Meeting, especially our new brothers who have joined our Council this past year.

Vivat Jesus!

A Message from Your Council.....Recorder & Respect Life, Justice & Peace Chairman

BACK PAY

In November 2019, Dr. Karen Evensen cleared me to give. I hadn't done this in years. I started in the 1960s but excused myself a few years ago even before my hip surgery by Dr. Evensen in November 2015. Interesting things had happened when I did it.

In the 1960s a donor exiting the parking lot couldn't get his token to open the wooden arm blocking the exit in Dallas, Texas where we were. We saw him get out of his car and snap off the wooden bar in anger. Blood began spurting from his arm! "Don't lift heavy objects for twenty-four hours," we had been told at Wadley Blood Center.

Years later I forgot that you have to be careful for twenty-four hours about activities. Once I tried to play softball with friends too soon and became really light-headed. I sat down to reflect on my foolishness. Sometime later I actually fainted right there after donating. How embarrassing! Real men don't faint. For the record, I think that was my only faint.

In late July 2020, I began researching through the American Red Cross. In 1628 British physician William Harvey discovered the circulation of blood. The first known blood transfusion was attempted soon afterward. In 1658 microscopist Jan Swammerdam observed and described red blood cells. The first recorded successful blood transfusion was in 1665 in England by Dr. Richard Lower, who kept a dog alive by transfusing blood from other dogs. Jean-Baptiste Denis in France and Richard Lower and Edmund King in England separately reported successful transfusions from sheep to humans in 1667. Note: it didn't say how the humans behaved afterward.

In 1818 British obstetrician James Blundell performed the first successful transfusion of human blood to a patient for the treatment of post-partum hemorrhage. In 1901 Karl Landsteiner, an Austrian physician, discovered the first three human blood groups. In 1940 the U.S. government established a national blood collection program. In 1941 the Red Cross began National Blood Donor Service to collect blood for the U.S. military with Dr. Charles Drew, formerly of the Plasma for British program, as medical director.

I was really impressed but wondered what it would be like during COVID-19. I started donating blood a few years after my near-fatal car collision with a tree in Fort Worth, Texas on December 19, 1966. Five pints of donated blood saved my life. I never knew who those generous souls were or why they donated blood. I knew that none of them had HIV, and I thanked God for them!

I was full of questions on August 6, 2020 when I showed up for my 3:30 PM appointment at St. Irenaeus hall in Cypress, CA. It was sponsored by the Knight of Columbus (K of C). Brother Knights checked me in and took my temperature. Irv Cuevas, a retired reporter from Channel 7 in Los Angeles and a brother knight, met me to take photos, since I was the only knight donating at that time. Irv was just as nervous as I was about this Red Cross donation during the Corona Virus. What dangers would we face?

Red Cross nurse Susan was supervising the donation site. She calmed all our fears with her gentle and knowledgeable approach. She had been with Red Cross for three-and-one-half years. Before, she was a travelling nurse therapist, helping patients recover from knee or hip surgery. She took my blood pressure, pricked my finger for a preliminary blood test, and led me through questions, with all answers being confidential. Irv photographed us together during some questions and while I was on the table. I learned that Red Cross tests for COVID-19 antibodies in all blood donations.

Susan told me that her father was a K of C knight when she lived in New York. When she was a little girl, her dad took her to a K of C bar and let her drink some alcohol.” Boy, did I get sick!” she told me. I asked if he got into trouble with her mom, and she exclaimed, “Big time!”

Susan had me answer very personal questions on the computer by myself, and then she wiped all touch areas clean. Some of the questions hadn’t changed from my last donation. They involved risky sexual behavior such as sex with men or prostitutes. New to me were questions about having HIV or Corona Virus or being a prostitute. I had a mask on; so Susan couldn’t see how red my face was at these embarrassing questions. Also, I had to agree to allow some of my blood to be used for experiments, or Red Cross would not take my blood. Susan assured me the tests would not compromise my Catholic faith and involved such things as testing new serums.

After clearing the questions, I donated a pint of blood. The whole experience with Susan and the Red Cross was wonderful! I got to thank some first responders for their selfless, life-saving work. Susan could not have been nicer in her calm, professional demeanor. I hardly missed that pint of blood. Also, I got to add to my pay back for those who donated blood for me. Could I ever give enough back pay for saving my life?

May God bless you all,

Frank J. Faecke

“Real Life Stories”

A field agent like me who is lucky enough to be doing this great work for even a few years, undoubtedly has a personal story of the chaos and disorder that a devastated family stares at when there is a sudden loss. If our goal is to protect Catholic families from the near devastation that our Venerable founder faced, then I have to tell the story of how I can help my brother knights. The process of making sure one has adequate protection for the family is not painful; in fact since we are brother knights serving brother knights, it is often a time of not only helping to protect all that is important to a family, but also a shared experience that leads to an abiding friendship.

There are two stories I'd like to relate.

The first is about a young boy named Julius. When Julius was 7 years old his mother, Irene, who was 37, died of cancer. His father, Norman, had two teenage girls along with 7 year old Julius to support and raise. The family was forced to rely on the help and generosity of friends and relatives because Irene died without life insurance. Norman had a three hour commute to his job, but always supported his children's activities. Julius excelled at sports, especially football and his dad spent what little free time he had fostering Julius and his talent. Julius later admitted that he “was handed a life lesson early, growing up with one parent. It wasn't the easiest life—my dad sacrificed a lot.”

Fast forward to Julius some 30 years later and he is married, has a wife and two children. He's done quite well for himself both professionally and financially. He has had a distinguished career and he has a considerable amount of life insurance to protect his family. Julius understands protection quite well after the early life he experienced. He understands the hardships of a family that loses a parent and what the children must go through. In his professional life he enjoyed considerable success because of those that protected him. For 13 years he was protected in his career. You see that protection for Julius came in the form of 300 pound offensive linemen...nobody called him Julius. His nickname was “Boomer”...Boomer Esiason—a four time Pro Bowler, an NFL Most Valuable Player and a Walter Peyton NFL Man of the Year. Most importantly, a husband to Cheryl and a father to Sydney and Gunnar.

“Life happens at the most unexpected of times, and life insurance is about protecting the future and the people you love,” Boomer says. “Remember, if something happens and you haven't done the planning, the people you leave behind will feel the brunt of your mistakes.” That story comes from LifeHappens.org.

The other story is not similar at all. It's about a member of the Knights of Columbus. He passed away recently and like in Boomer's family, left behind a spouse and several young children. There were no whispered worries at the funeral home. There was no GoFundMe page to raise money. There is no concern that the children will not go to college or that the wedding he promised his daughter will not take place. No, their home and future are secure. Who was that knight? I don't know; you don't hear about those men. Because the council didn't have to have a spaghetti dinner or pass the hat. But I assure you he was out there. But you'll never know it...because he planned.

Let's sit down and do some planning and put your mind at ease.

Vivat Jesus!

Your Council's – Membership Director

Brother Knights,

Welcome to our new member Alfonso Game, recruited by Benjamin Servin. Alfonso has been helping during the Hope food distribution on 1st & 3rd Saturday. Please extend your warm welcome to our new Brother Knight.

Everybody should be recruiting new members and build our council. Our membership is now aging members, so we younger catholic men. Talk to your friends, relatives. Have them call me or our Grand Knight.

Qualifications are:

- Are you a man?
- Are you 18 or older?
- Are you a practical catholic?
- Are you trying to follow the Commandments and the Precepts of the Church?
