THE GRAND KNIGHT

Dear Brother Knights,

Happy New Year! There are so many traditions that we as a people will do, to ring in the new year... Some of those traditions are toasting with champagne, watching fireworks, making resolutions for the new year, leaving doors open (I really don't understand that one still) and singing, "Auld Lang Syne." While all of those are terrific and fun, let us welcome this new year from a Christian perspective. Let us focus on gratitude and hope and renewal, in God's love for us. Let us remember to trust Him with our futures and seek His guidance during those difficult times.

There is one other that I think is very important and very special and that is to live our life with a purpose! Remember that the founder of our organization, Father Michael, J McGivney lived a virtuous life and followed Jesus's Commandment of "charity and building up his Body, which is the Church"... we can continue his work by doing many of the things that we already do. It is for this reason I encourage my Brother Knights to join in and participate in the many activities that we do throughout the year. Ask yourself, what events in the coming year can I participate in, that I didn't do so, this past year. If we all asked ourselves that question and volunteered for just two more activities, in the next 12 months, think of how much more we would be doing for our fellow man, our families, our parish and our community... please be one of those that steps forward to help fill our gaps of service, in this upcoming year of 2026...

Happy New Year to all of you and your families... may God's grace and peace be with all of you each and every day, in 2026...

Stay well and serve well, my Brother Knights!

COUNCIL CHAPLAIN'S Corner

When I Rise Give Me Jesus was likely written by an author who values Faith and Spirituality. But unfortunately the specific author is unknown. When I read it I felt something I just had to share.

it was

When I Rise Give Me Jesus

Before the noise of the world finds me, before the weight of another year settles in my bones, before I remember everything I've lost and everything I'm still carrying.

Give me Jesus in the quiet-when the house is still, when the coffee is warm, when the mirror tells the truth about time.

I've lived long enough to know that strength doesn't always look strong. That faith isn't loud. That some prayers are whispered because they have been prayed so many times before.

I've entered this new year with more memories than plans, more gratitude than urgency, more surrender than striving. I don't ask for the day to go back. I don't ask to be younger. I ask to be present. Because I've learned -the years teach you what the rushing never could.

They teach you that children grow faster than you're ready for, that parent's age quicker than you expect, that love leaves fingerprints on everything you touch. They teach you that not every prayer is answered the way you imagined, but every prayer is heard.

So when I rise this year, give me Jesus, when my body aches, when the calendar turns, when I realize how fast time moves now, give me Jesus- in the empty rooms full of memories, in the laughter I miss and the laughter that still finds me.

Give me Jesus when the world feels uncertain, when the future unfamiliar, when I don't know what the next season will hold. Because I know this-He was faithful then, He is faithful now, and He will be faithful still. So when I rise, give me Jesus-not just for the morning, but for every hour I'm given.

And when this year asks me who I trust, who I lean on who I belong to- my answer will remain the same....

Give Me Jesus

Dear Brother Knights,

Happy New Year and where has the time gone. It's amazing as a kid, Christmas can seem like it will never come and as we grow into adults, Christmas comes and goes and it's already New Years. Time flies and I wish the bills got paid as fast. I am hoping everyone that attended the Knights Family Christmas party enjoyed the time with family and fellow brothers. Santa never disappoints and all the kids were extremely happy and enjoyed singing Happy Birthday to Jesus. Thank you, Gus & Santa, for presenting the cake and leading us in song.

Every New Year lets us appreciate the past year. Great 2025, with our Fish Fry, Pancake Breakfast, Spouses event/Pirates Night and different charity drives. We are truly blessed, and this new year starts out quickly with lent starting mid-February. I am hoping we can all pitch in and help like last year, we had record numbers of guest supporting our Friday dinners. Let our new year's resolution start with attending more monthly meetings in 2026. Fellow Brothers let's try and attend at least one meeting (good to see George and Jerry attend at least one meeting in 2025). The meetings start with a dinner at 6:30pm on the 3rd Wednesday of each month followed by our general meeting at 7:00. (Our Grand Knight Paulo promises to keep the meeting to an hour always wishful thinking:).

This Fish Fry will once again have a Time Share Raffle. Thank you, fellow Brother Dante Garcia for donating a 3 Night stay at the beautiful Marriot's Shadow Ridge Village in Palm Desert, Ca. (June 3-6th). Last year fellow Brother Dave Donovan won the raffle to Lake Tahoe. We will have a Fish Fry meeting in January and if you would like to present new ideas or helpful changes, please don't hesitate to attend or call a fellow Board Member in our Cypress Council with your thoughts. (Numbers listed in the monthly Newsletter).

Once again, Happy New Year and don't forget to recruit a new member.
All the best and God Bless

Pro-Life Information

I realize many if not most of you are uncomfortable viewing the photos of aborted babies posted in this bulletin.

I was told many years ago by a faithful Christian who was presented with fact's pertaining to abortions and was asked to present this information to teens attending school, that it was too disturbing. I think one of the problems is that people do not realize how horrific an abortion really is.

Maybe if those that are not concerned about what an abortion is, with more information such as photos, they would rethink their position on the issue.

What Is Wisdom?

By Frank Faecke

I believe Wisdom is a gift from God. If we don't think it is a gift, then we're really not very smart! If it is not from God, who is it from?

Years ago brother knight Ray Richmond gave me a small brochure he picked up at a church in Las Vegas, Nevada entitled "Novena To The Holy Spirit." I researched it and discovered that the author George E. Schulhoff founded Schulhoff Rental Equipment and Sales in Walnut Hills, Ohio. With permission of his bishop, George founded the Apostles of the Holy Spirit. It is a lay group that met on the second floor of his tool rental store, promoting love for and devotion to the Holy Spirit in 1948. The pamphlet was cleared by church authorities on February 19, 1997 with the declaration that it contained no doctrinal or moral errors.

This well-loved man organized yearly retreats for merchants, was a lifetime member of the Third Order of St. Francis, and always wanted to help someone, according to his obituary. He died of a heart attack at age 86 and left his wife Mary Elizabeth a widow after 64 years of marriage. George was also a Chancellor in his local Knights of Columbus.

George had a hobby of collecting and repairing clocks, which he had all over his store and house. When his last name is translated from the German, it means "School House." In saying this novena for years, I found that it contains a lot of wisdom.

The novena, which can be accessed online, ends on the ninth day with the following reflection on Wisdom: "COMMON SENSE

The only other spiritual gift You offer to us if we listen, O Holy Spirit, is the greatest of all Your gifts. Your gift of WISDOM. This gift of WISDOM is the highest compliment man can receive.

Your gift of WISDOM endows us with the ability to use all of Your other six spiritual gifts in their exact proper proportion.

The baker is wise, O Holy Spirit, when he does not use too much of any one ingredient in his cake. The ability to use each of Your spiritual gifts of KNOWLEDGE-UNDERSTANDING-COUNSEL-FORTITUDE-PIETY and FEAR OF THE LORD in exactly the right proportion is the gift of gifts. The gift of WISDOM.

END OF BEGINNING

Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center

“Faith: Trusting in the God Who Waits for You”

Retreat Dates: January 23 – 25, 2026

Too often we think of faith in terms of a whole set of beliefs, some of which we understand, many of which are simply beyond us. But in this year's retreat, trusting in the God who waits for you, the focus is less on specific beliefs and more on faith as openness to the heart of God who waits long and always lovingly - to touch our own hearts in deep and abiding relationship. God does not shout. God is present to us in what we see as graced moments, often in hindsight.

The retreat center provides a private room and bath, delicious meals, beautifully landscaped grounds, and the guidance of the Passionist Retreat Team. The atmosphere of this silent, preached retreat will lay paths for this exploration. Mater Dolorosa Passionist Retreat Center invites the men of St. Irenaeus, and your invited guests, to join in this epic adventure to the interior of our souls.

For more information or questions, contact Carlos Ramirez, ctr Ramirez.cr@gmail.com; 714-827-6216.

[The Deputy Grand Knight – Continued from Page 6]

- Deacon Coat & Warm Clothing Drive

Saturday, January 31 and Sunday, February 1

We will need Knights after each Mass, as well as Knights with trucks to help with distribution on the following Monday.

Please attend the meetings or watch your email for more information regarding a Ladies Night event, and remember that Fish Fry begins on February 20. We truly raised the bar last year, and it will take everyone's help to meet expectations and demand again this year. We are a standout Fish Fry event and our Brother Councils took notice.

Finally, January 24 is the Feast Day of St. Francis de Sales. I would like to close with one of his quotes:

“We should invoke God often during the day and say, like St. Paul when he was converted: ‘Lord, what do you want me to do? Do you want me to serve you in the lowliest tasks of your house? I would consider it a privilege! Provided that I serve you, I don’t care what I do.’”

Vivat Jesus!
