THE GRAND KNIGHT

Dear Brother Knights,

As you know, June 31st is the end of this fraternal year and it marks the end of my role as your Grand Knight of our great council. Thank you for giving me the honor and thrust to serve as your Grand Knight for the past two years. In fact, I would not have done it without the support of many of you who have always responded diligently any time I called on you. I sincerely appreciate all your support and contributions to our council. Please let us continue to remain united in our Catholic faith, charity, and fraternity, so that we can do great things for the common good of our council and order at large.

Please join me in congratulating all our new incoming officers, especially the new Grand Knight and Deputy Grand Knight. Let us continue to give them our endless support and assistance in any way possible. May God grant them the wisdom, strength, and guidance needed to fulfill their duties faithfully.

Remember!

“I can do things you cannot, you can do things I cannot; together we can do great things”
Mother Teresa.

May God continue to reward each one of you for your dedication and contributions to our great council.

Remain blessed.
Chris Nsor

A Call from Heaven

A true story by Nancy Perkins:

My father had unexpectedly died at the age of 78, leaving our family heartbroken. During the funeral my sister felt her phone vibrate. She didn't answer it because everyone she knew was either here or knew today was our father's funeral. After the mass she checked her messages. "Hi" a male voice said, "its dad, I just wanted to let you know I made it home. Love you" The caller obviously had the wrong number. Or did he? I choose to think Dad was sending us a message, letting us know he had completed his journey to heaven. Thanks Dad.

Lord make me something like my dad;
Give me a little of his will, that good
Old stubbornness he had
That helped him up the hardest hill.

From Your Council.....Chancellor

My dear Brothers,

As my time serving as Chancellor comes to a close, I want to take a moment to reflect on what an honor it has been to serve you and our council in this role.

The office of Chancellor is one that calls a man to be a bridge — connecting new members to the life of the council and encouraging all of us to stay active in our mission of charity, unity, and fraternity. I've done my best to live up to that responsibility, but the truth is, it's been your spirit, generosity, and willingness to serve that made this a successful year.

Each of you brings your unique, God-given talents to our council — individual fibers that are woven into a strong cord. That cord is held together by friction — yes, the friction of ideas and honest discussion that challenges us to grow. It is strengthened by the tension of a shared mission and the weight of the task at hand. And it is made firm by cohesion; the deep bond formed by standing shoulder to shoulder in service, not as individuals, but as a unit, as a Council.

Together, we've had an active and memorable year. From the Intellectual Disabilities Drive, our joyful Christmas Party, our Corporate Communion, Exemplification, Fiesta Booth, Fish Fry, Pancake Breakfasts, The incredibly successful Raffle and Mother's Day Roses; we've lived out our faith in action and built community through every event.

Serving as your Chancellor has been a true privilege. I am deeply grateful for the bonds we've strengthened together, the friendships we've made, the new Knights we have welcomed. I look forward to continuing this journey of service, side by side with you, my Brothers in Christ.

Vivat Jesus!

GO TO JOSEPH

By Frank Joseph Faecke

Faced with such a difficult question, the grandfather went to St. Joseph in prayer for an answer. He simply told the doctor, “do the best you can.” Mother and baby Jose both lived! Padre Jose (the miracle baby) said further that after he was grown years ago he went to St. Joseph, represented by Joseph’s statue at the very church we were in, St. Peter Chanel. God directed him to pursue a priestly vocation, which he has done through the present

My wife and I, along with the entire large congregation that day were spellbound as we reflected on Padre Jose’s sermon! As we continued at the mass, we couldn’t help being thankful for St. Joseph’s quiet, completely faithful role in Salvation History!

I have a special devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary and a special devotion to her loving husband Joseph. On my desk a figure of sleeping St. Joseph rests. A special friend named Virginia gave it to me some years ago, along with a “Prayer to the Sleeping Saint Joseph.” It was while sleeping that an angel came to Joseph telling him to take pregnant Mary as his spouse because the child Jesus within her was conceived by the Holy Spirit. My work of art small statue came from Colombia, South America. It was meticulously painted by hand by a group of widows who lost their husbands due to violence in Colombia! They had gone to Joseph. Note: Sleeping St. Joseph is a favorite image of Pope Francis (RIP.)

Before I sleep, I gaze upon a wooden hand carved scene my dad made. He carved the depiction of St. Joseph in his workshop, complete with Mary, young Jesus, and Joseph’s work bench and tools. Appropriate that this scene from the life of this famous carpenter is all in wood! I love seeing this site and reflecting on it before sleeping! Let’s all “Go to Joseph” for any help we need!
